PURPOSE & ELIGIBILITY

The Jacqueline Leaffer Wish for the Heart Award is to support CU-SOM early-career investigators (fellows, instructors & assistant professors) doing outstanding research in women's heart disease.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Eligible candidates will be evaluated on criteria appropriate to measure progress in research. Such criteria will include, but are not limited to research funding obtained, papers written, presentations delivered, discoveries made, peer recognition, leadership in the field and overall commitment to research.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

To apply, send your biosketch in current NIH format by July 22, 2022 to carly.piliuse@cuanschutz.edu. In the personal statement, include specifically how you plan to use the funds and, in lay terms, how this award will support your research in heart disease for women.
