National mentoring

Primary scientific faculty mentor

Indigenous HIV/AIDS Research Training (IHART); R25 MH084565, Walters and Duran, MPI
Indigenous Wellness Research Institute, University of Washington.

- 2011 – 2014 *Tommi Gaines, Ph.D., University of California-San Diego
- 2012 – *Ramona Beltran, Ph.D., University of Denver
- 2016 – *Vanessa Simonds, Ph.D., Montana State University

Faculty mentor

National Research Mentoring Network (NRMN); U54 MD009479; Burgess, PI
NRMN is a 5-year, multi-site $20 million investment by NIH to diversify the scientific workforce.

- 2015 – 2016 *Kelly Gonzalez, Ph.D., Portland State University
 2015 – 2016 *Kat Milligan-Myhre, Ph.D., University of Alaska, Fairbanks, awarded funding for her R15 application submitted during this mentorship period, and two NIH-funded pilot studies.
 2015 – 2016 *Amy Wassman, Ph.D., University of Hawaii
 2019 *Amanda Boyd, Ph.D., Washington State University
 2019 Jane Chung-Do, Ph.D., University of Hawaii

Other Teaching Activities

National Curriculum Development and Implementation

- 2004 – 2009, Circle of Life
 2017 HIV-prevention curriculum developed for American Indian middle school students by ORBIS Associates in 2002. I was responsible for implementation of this health curriculum across all 13 middle school students in one Northern Plains tribal reservation (n=891). Currently, we are converting this hard copy curriculum (including cassette tapes) for smart-board and web-based access.
- 2010 – 2016 Multimedia Circle of Life (mCOL)
 Translated a hard copy sexual health intervention (COL) for 12-15 year-olds to an online multimedia program for 10-12 year-old Native Youth. Collaborative project with the Office of Minority Health Resource Center and the Indian Health Service. Website includes links to web-based program, training resources, and teacher's guide (<http://www.healthynativeyouth.org/curricula>). Developed under funding from Office of Adolescent Health (TP2AH000003, Kaufman, PI).
- 2011 – 2014 Native It's Your Game (N-IYG)
 It's Your Game is an evidence-based sexual health curriculum. I consulted on the adaptation of IYG for use with AIAN youth. N-IYG is nationally accessible on www.HealthyNativeYouth.org.

Other Educational Material Development and Implementation

Centers for American Indian and Alaska Native Health

- 2007 – 2009 What Grants.Gov training never told you: Tips and pointers to NIH eSubmissions.
 A living document designed to assist colleagues in navigating the evolving eSubmission process for NIH/Grants.gov.
- 2008 Using Stata for Imputation: Overview and examples from a user's point of view
 A guide to multiple imputation in Stata for data analyses at CAIANH.

Tribal educational materials

- 2003 Game of life
 Sexual health learning activity for American Indian youth (middle school through high school); materials can be tailored to learning about specific diseases and include information as detailed (or general) as requested by a school or community.
- 2005 Using the American Indian Services Utilization, Psychiatric Epidemiology, Risk and Protective Factors Projects (AI-SUPERPFP) data with SPSS: Introduction and examples.
 An overview brief of the AI-SUPERPFP data with annotated practical applications for tribal research partners (contributor).
- 2006 – 2015 Community newsletters and participant project summary letters

We regularly communicated research findings or updates with participants, parents of participants, and community partners through letters, flyers, and newsletters, and community summaries of publications. (See “Other Publications,” below.)

- 2008 – 2010 Tribal community sexual health education and free HIV testing
Above and beyond specific project goals (CDC R18 PS001155; Kaufman, PI), our community partnership activities also included 24 classroom presentations and participation in 27 community health fairs or community events. As a marker of reach (and trust by the community), we administered HIV tests to over 900 individuals.
- 2011 RESPECT training with Tribal communities
RESPECT is an evidence-based sexual risk reduction intervention supported by the CDC. As a part of community partnership, we held a specialized training on RESPECT for 15 professionals who provide sexual health care to American Indian and Alaska Natives. In this event, CDC trainers provided instruction on RESPECT implementation integrated with our staff’s expertise in translating that intervention into practice in tribal settings. This training was in addition to activities proposed in the application.

RESEARCH RECORD

Grants, Cooperative Agreements and Contracts

Active Grants

Preventing Alcohol-Exposed Pregnancies among Urban Native Youth: Mobile CHOICES (R01)

- Funder: National Institutes of Health: National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA)
- Principal Investigators: Carol E. Kaufman and Michelle Sarche (MPI)
- Dates: 08/01/18 – 07/31/23
- Type: Grant
- The goal of this project is to test the effectiveness of a culturally adapted mobile health intervention to prevent alcohol-exposed pregnancies among urban American Indian and Alaska Native young women.

Active Contracts

Tribal-VHA Partnerships in Suicide Prevention (year 1 of 3)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Dates: 10/01/2019 – 09/30/2020
- Type: Contract

The overall goal of this project is to advance suicide prevention for rural Native American Veterans, a group at high-risk of suicide. We will develop and strategically test a model of suicide prevention that integrates VA evidence-based, system-wide approaches with culturally grounded Native American perspectives, traditions, and practices.

Rural Native Veteran Navigator Program (RNV-NP) Development (Year 1 of 4)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Byron Bair (Project Lead)
- Dates: 10/01/2019 – 09/30/2020
- Type: Contract
- Role: Sub-project lead/Executive team

Our overall goal is to increase RNV access to healthcare, and subsequently improve health outcomes. We will accomplish this goal by providing facilitated guidance, coaching, and navigation to care and benefits to individual RNVs through a structured and integrated program implemented VA system-wide.

Completed Grants (reverse chronological order)

Tribal Early Childhood Research Center (second funding cycle)

- Funded by: Administration for Children and Families: Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation
- Principal Investigator: Michelle Sarche
- Role: Co-Investigator (in kind, 2017-18 only)
- Dates: 09/30/2016 – 09/29/2020
- Total award: $2,600,000
- Type: Cooperative Agreement

The goal of this proposal is to extend the work of the existing Tribal Early Childhood Research Center, consulting with early childhood programs in American Indian and Alaska Native communities.

Culturally Grounded Early Substance Use Prevention for American Indian Families

- Funded by: NIH/National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01 DA035111)
- Principal Investigator: Nancy Rumbaugh Whitesell
- Project Dates: 06/15/2013 – 03/31/2018
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Total award: $3,489,838
- Type: Grant
- The study adapts, implements and evaluates an evidence-based early substance use prevention program for middle-school youth on a Northern Plains American Indian reservation.

American Indian and Alaska Native Health Disparities

- Funded by: NIH/ National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (P60 MD000507)
- Principal Investigator: Spero M. Manson
- Project Dates: 09/30/03-05/31/17
- Project Role: Sub-Project Lead, Disparities Analysis (01/01/16-05/31/17)
- Type: Center Grant
- This center grant supports and coordinates studies of varying design that investigate means of reducing risk of health disparities among American Indians and Alaska Natives.

Teen Pregnancy Prevention among Native Youth of the Northern Plains

- Funded by: DHHS/Office of Adolescent Health (TP2AH00003)
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project Dates: 09/10-08/15
- Total Award: $4,622,715
- Type: Cooperative Agreement

- Using a longitudinal grouped-randomized trial, this study evaluated the effectiveness of multimedia Circle of Life (mCOL), a sexual risk reduction intervention designed specifically for Native youth aged 10-12 years at Native Boys and Girls clubs in North and South Dakota.

Factors Related to Substance Use Development in Young American Indian Adolescents;

a.k.a. EAST – Early Adolescent Substance use Trajectories

- Funded by: NIH/National Institute on Drug Abuse (R01 DA027665)
- Principal Investigator: Nancy Rumbaugh Whitesell
- Project Dates: 09/09 – 08/14
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Total award: $790,090
- Type: Grant
- This study extended descriptions of development of substance use among American Indian youth into early adolescence and examined the relationships of substance use initiation and developmental trajectories with exposure to childhood stress and trauma, early puberty, peer influences, parent influences and connection to tribal culture.

ProjectTEACH: Teaching Equity to Advance Community Health

- Funded by: Colorado Department of Environment and Public Health (9/09-6/10) and Colorado Health Foundation (09/10-08/12)
- Principal Investigator: Angela Sauaia
- Project Dates: 09/10 – 08/12
- Role: Faculty mentor, evidence-based programs
- Total Award: $272,400
- Type: Grant

Through on-site training, this 2-3 day workshop was designed to enhance the capacity of Colorado community-based health organizations to develop strong grant applications to support their work.

Translating RESPECT with Native Communities

- Funded by: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (R18 PS001155)
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project Dates: 9/08 – 9/11
- Total Award: $1,342,866
- Type: Grant
- This study used the RE-AIM framework of enhancing external validity to implement an evidence-based practice (RESPECT) in a Northern Plains reservation community, with a focus on understanding the potential diffusion of this intervention in a tribal reservation context.

Multilevel Analysis of American Indian Mental Health, Illness and Service Use

- Funding Agency: NIH/National Institute of Mental Health (R01 MH075831)
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project Dates: 09/07 – 6/10
- Total Award: $1,415,070
- Type: Grant
- This study explored the demography of mental illness, psychiatric disorders, cultural idioms of distress and impairment in 2 American Indian tribes, utilizing multilevel models to place mental illness in community and family context; and examined the geospatial context of service use, including both biomedical and traditional modalities.

Differential Impact of HIV Intervention on Native Youth

- Funded by: NIH/National Institute of Mental Health (R01 MH069086)
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project Dates: 09/04 – 07/09
- Total award: $2,244,842
- Type: Grant
- Using a wait-listed longitudinal group-randomized design, this project examined the differential effects of a middle-school HIV prevention curriculum developed especially for American Indian students in a tribal community.

Differential Impact of HIV Intervention on Native Youth (Diversity Supplement): Influence of Lakota Culture on Sexual Risk Behaviors of Native Youth

- Funded by: NIH/National Institute of Mental Health (R01 MH069086-S1)
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project Dates: 09/05 – 08/08
- Total award: $553,808
- Type: Diversity Supplement, Dr. Sara Jumping Eagle
- The goal of this study was to explore cultural factors that may be important in the development and implementation of a culturally appropriate intervention for the prevention of HIV in sexually active AI youth in one Northern Plains (NP) reservation, a Lakota community.

Sociocultural Validity in the Context of DSM Comorbidity

- Funded by: NIH/ National Institute of Mental Health (R01 MH073965)
- Principal Investigator: Jan Beals
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Project Dates: 07/06 – 06/09
- Total Award: $1,404,518
- Type: Grant
- This study developed a framework for investigating sociocultural factors in the diagnostic process by understanding the patterns of comorbidity among major depression, PTSD and alcohol use disorder, utilizing data from a large-scale epidemiological study of 2 American Indian populations and extensive interview and ethnographic data within this sample.

Development of Alcohol Use and Misuse among American Indian Youth

- Funded by: NIH/NIAAA (R01 AA015365)
- Principal Investigator: Christina Mitchell
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Project Dates: 03/05 – 02/08
- Total Award: $674,732
- Type: Grant
- This study examined the structure, equivalence and stability of measures of alcohol use, misuse and related alcohol problems in adolescence and emergent adulthood in 2 American Indian samples and explored homogeneity and heterogeneity in the development of and change in alcohol use, misuse and problems, building theoretically based models of the development of alcohol use, misuse and problems in the context of other problem/positive behaviors.

Chronic Stressors and Drug Abuse in 2 Indian Populations

- Funded by: NIH/NIDA (R01 DA017803)
- Principal Investigator: Jan Beals
- Role: Co-Investigator

- Project Dates: 07/04 – 04/07
- Total Award: $1,114,547
- Type: Grant
- This study characterized the epidemiology of chronic stress in 2 reservation populations; described the relationships among chronic stress, drug use and DSM-defined drug disorders in these populations; and investigated relationships among chronic stress, drug use and disorder and co-occurring problems including PTSD, other DSM-defined disorders (depressive, anxiety and alcohol) and violence and antisocial behavior.

Alcohol Health Services Research in Two Indian Populations

- Funded by: NIH/NIAAA (R01 AA13420)
- Principal Investigator: Jan Beals
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Project Dates: 03/02 – 02/05
- Total Award: $1,028,250
- Type: Grant
- This study described the prevalence and patterns of alcohol-related service utilization within 2 AI populations, the relationship between alcohol problem recognition and indicators of problematic use and developed models of service utilization for those with alcohol-related problems employing the Stress-Coping Model of Treatment Entry as a theoretical.

Drug Use and Health Disparities in 2 Indian Populations

- Funded by: NIH/NIDA (R01 DA14817)
- Principal Investigator: Jan Beals
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Project Dates: 09/01 – 08/04
- Total Award: $1,735,089
- Type: Grant
- This study explored disparities in the use of drugs and tobacco in 2 American Indian tribes, the psychosocial factors underlying such use, the consequences of drug use and disparities in access to and utilization of drugs, placing these findings in a national context through comparisons with the National Comorbidity Survey and the National Household Survey on Drug Abuse.

HIV/STD Prevention Research in Two American Indian Tribes

- Funded by: NIH/NIMH (R01 MH59017)
- Principal Investigator: Christina M. Mitchell
- Role: Project Director
- Project Dates: 09/98 – 08/03
- Total Award: $2,044,569
- Type: Grant
- The goals of this project were to understand the behavioral epidemiology of HIV/AIDS and sexually transmitted infections (STIs) in 2 American Indian tribes and to use information gained from the behavioral and biomedical epidemiologic investigations to select and design individual- and community- level preventive interventions.

Transition to Adulthood in the Context of AIDS in South Africa

- Funded by: Rockefeller Foundation and USAID
- Principal Investigators: Carol E. Kaufman and Naomi Rutenburg (co-PI)
- Project Dates: 09/98 – 08/02
- Total Award: $500,000 (estimated, excludes personnel and travel)

- Type: Foundation award and contract
- The goals of this project were to evaluate the impact of Life Skills programs on adolescent knowledge, attitudes and behaviors in sexual risk taking in South Africa and assess patterns and trends of critical transitions over the adolescent life course, including sexual activity, family-building, education, and employment.

Adolescent Childbearing and Motherhood in South Africa

- Funded by: Rockefeller Foundation and USAID
- Principal Investigator: Barbara Mensch
- Role: Project Lead for South Africa component
- Project Dates: 07/98 – 06/99
- Total Award: $20,000 (estimated, excludes personnel and travel)
- Type: Foundation Award
- The goals of this grant were to examine the relationship of persistent high levels of teenage childbearing to fertility decline in South Africa, to assess the role of boys, men and paternity for adolescent pregnancy and early adulthood and to determine the consequences for schooling work and marriage for young parents.

Children's schooling, household structure, and community resources in developing nations

- Funded by: Rockefeller Foundation
- Principal Investigators: Cynthia Lloyd
- Role: Project lead for South Africa component
- Project Dates: 10/96 – 09/99
- Total Award: $150,000 (estimated, excludes personnel and travel)
- Type: Foundation award
- This project described educational transitions for children in South Africa and to assess the relationship of children's pace and progress through school with family compositional shifts and commensurate changes in intra-household allocation of resources.

Completed Contracts (reverse chronological order)

Context of Rural Native Veteran Suicide (YR3)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Date Submitted: June 21, 2018
- Proposed dates: 10/01/2018 – 09/30/2019
- Type: Contract

The overall goal of this project is to continue to empirically assess patterns and characteristics associated with suicide and suicide-related behavior for rural AIAN Veterans through secondary data analysis. In addition, we will identify and assess appropriate suicide prevention programs for this vulnerable veteran population.

A Survey of Suicide Prevention Coordinators' Activities for Rural Veterans

Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration

10/01/2018-9/30/2019, Goss, C (Project Lead)

Role: Co-Investigator

The purpose of this project is to survey VA Suicide Prevention Coordinators about their activities to prevent suicide among rural Veterans, to make recommendations about future rural Veteran suicide prevention programming, and to support VA partners who seek to strengthen their suicide prevention programming with rural Veterans

Context of Rural Native Veteran Suicide (YR2)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Date Submitted: June 16, 2017
- Proposed dates: 10/01/2017 – 09/30/2018
- Total award: $93,266
- Type: Contract

The overall goal of this project is to continue to empirically assess patterns and characteristics associated with suicide and suicide-related behavior for rural AIAN Veterans through secondary data analysis. In addition, we will identify and assess appropriate suicide prevention programs for this vulnerable veteran population.

Partnerships to Advance Cost-Effective Service Utilization Planning for Rural Native Veterans

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Date Submitted: June 16, 2017
- Proposed dates: 10/01/2017 – 09/30/2018
- Total award: $176,569
- Type: Contract
- The purpose of this project is to assess health care utilization and associated costs for American Indian and Alaska Native Veterans using the Indian Health Service (IHS) database, and to investigate feasibility of linking IHS with VHA as well Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) data.

The Personal Responsibility Education Program: Tribal Teen Pregnancy Prevention Grantee Technical Assistance

- Funded by: Family and Youth Services Bureau (DHHS): subcontract with Mathematica Policy Research
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman
- Project dates: 3/1/16 – 12/31/17
- Type: Contract
- In this contract, we provide technical assistance to tribal grantees in all aspects of program preparation, implementation and evaluation.

Tribal College and University Outreach (YR3)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2016 – 09/30/2017
- Total award: $135,562
- Type: Contract
- In the third and final year of this project, the goal will be to solidify tribal college partnerships, determine feasibility of training for student Veterans, and facilitate outreach options for student Veterans in tribal communities.

Context of Rural Native Veteran Suicide and Suicide Behavior (YR1)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration

- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2016 – 09/30/2017
- Total award: $86,090
- Type: Contract
- The overall goal of this project is to use existing data to learn about patterns and characteristics associated with suicide and SRB for rural AIAN Veterans, which can then inform and improve services to prevent suicide in this vulnerable population.

Rural Veteran Outreach Toolkit: Update and Pacific Rim Island Adaptations (YR3)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2016 – 09/30/2017
- Total award: $55,239
- Type: Contract
- The goal of this project is to revise the Rural Veterans Outreach Toolkit: We will conduct a comprehensive and careful review of the current version; and update the Toolkit with lessons learned from implementation experiences, including from the Pacific Rim region.

Tribal College and University Outreach (YR2)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2015 – 09/30/2016
- Total award: $184,338
- Type: Contract
- The purpose of this project was to advance partnerships with Tribal Colleges and Universities for outreach activities or expanded services for rural American Indian and Alaska Native Veterans.

Pacific Rim Outreach (YR2)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2015 – 09/30/2016
- Total award: $121,343
- Type: Contract
- The goal of this project was to complete the Rural Veteran Outreach model of community engagement with American Samoa (Pacific Rim), a process started in the prior fiscal year.

Tribal College and University Outreach (YR1)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carly Shangreau (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2014 – 09/30/2015
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Total award: $133,172
- Type: Contract
- The overall objective of this project was to assess the potential for partnership with Tribal Colleges and Universities for outreach activities or expanded services for rural AIAN Veterans.

Pacific Rim Outreach (YR1)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Lezlie Cohn-Oswald (Project Lead)

- Project dates: 10/01/2014 – 09/30/2015
- Role: Co-Investigator
- Total award: $142,536
- Type: Contract
- The goal of this project was to complete implementation of the Rural Veteran Outreach model of community engagement with islands of the Pacific Rim.

Native Veteran Homeless Resource Project

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2013 – 09/30/2014
- Total award: $84,099
- Type: Contract
- The aim of this project was to build a set of resources for both VA personnel and non-VA individuals or organizations who work with rural homeless Native Veterans.

American Indian Rural Veteran Outreach

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2013 – 09/30/2014
- Total award: $84,099
- Type: Contract
- The goal of this project was to implement the Rural Veteran Outreach model in a tribal community.

Rural Native Veterans Promising Programs Initiative: Community Action Native Veteran Outreach (YR3)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2012 – 09/30/2013
- Total award: $165,952
- Type: Contract
- In this third and final year of the project, we finalized formative research results, meet with communities to gather input on the results, and disseminated findings.

Model Development, Population Comparison and Programmatic Information for Native Veterans (YR2)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Elizabeth Brooks (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2011 – 09/30/2012
- Role: Population Scientist
- Total award: $184,622
- Type: Contract
- This project continued the prior year's effort in assess health and healthcare utilization of rural Native veterans.

Rural Native Veterans Promising Programs Initiative (YR2)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman and Tim Noe (co Project Leads)
- Project dates: 10/01/2011 – 09/30/2012
- Total award: $179,856
- Type: Contract

- This project continued the work commenced in the prior year; we conducted a series of key informant interviews and focus groups to establish challenges and strengths of VHA care for rural Native veterans.

Model Development, Population Comparison and Programmatic Information for Native Veterans (YR1)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Elizabeth Brooks (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2010 – 09/30/2011
- Role: Population Scientist
- Total award: $175,844
- Type: Contract
- This project described the impact of multi-level factors on health status and healthcare utilization of rural Native veterans using VHA and other databases. Special emphasis was be place on Traumatic Brain Injury, age/period of service, and gender differences.

Rural Native Veterans Promising Programs Initiative (YR1)

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman and Tim Noe (co Project Leads)
- Project dates: 10/01/2010 – 09/30/2011
- Total award: $145,689
- Type: Contract
- We proposed formative research with rural Native veterans, their family members, and community members to inform processes for implementing promising programs responsive to specific cultural and health challenges.

Descriptive Analyses of Rural Native Veterans Characteristics and Service Use Patterns Using the VHA Patient Database

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Project Lead)
- Project dates: 10/01/2009 – 09/30/2010
- Total award: $148,100
- Type: Contract
- This project described the demographic and utilization profile of rural Native Veterans accessing care at VHA facilities.

Strategic Planning in Database Use to Assess Rural Native Veterans Characteristics and Service Use Patterns

- Funded by: Office of Rural Health, Veterans Health Administration
- Principal Investigator: Carol E. Kaufman (Projet Lead)
- Project dates: 05/01/2009 – 09/30/2009
- Total award: $69,888
- Type: Contract
- Specific aims included the strategic planning of VA rural Native veteran database analyses for assessing demographic and clinical profile of Native rural veterans; outlining policy and programmatic areas relevant for rural Native veterans; and assisting with strategic planning of activities of the Native Domain broadly.

Population Council Policy Research Working Paper Series

This is a competitive internally peer-reviewed series. Once accepted into the series, the working paper was distributed internationally (in hard copy at the time) to facilitate access to research in developing countries, where resources for expensive journal subscriptions are limited. Subsequently, I converted these working papers to peer-reviewed journal articles (noted by CV bibliography number in brackets).
